

BC Girls at National Women's Team Fall Festival

September 24 – 28, 2014

Calgary, AB

Kimberly Newell
Goalie
Burnaby, BC
Princeton University (ECAC)

Newell is entering her third year as the starting goaltender for the Princeton Tigers, where she has been named to the Eastern College Athletic Conference All-Academic team for the past two seasons. Last season, she posted a 12-13-4 record with a pair of shutouts. She was also a member of the Canadian Women's U18 team and won the gold medal at the 2013 IIHF U18 Women's World Championship.

Kaleigh Fratkin
Defense
Burnaby, BC
Boston (CWHL)

Fratkin recently finished her collegiate career with Boston University, and currently plays professionally for the Boston Blades of the Canadian Women's Hockey League.

Last season, she was named a New England Division 1 All Star and Hockey East First Team All Star and selected to Hockey East All-Tournament team. She finished the season with career highs in goals (4), assists (26) and points (30).

She was the first female to play in the BC Major Midget League where she played with the Vancouver North West Giants, helping them capture the 2010 Provincial Championship. Fratkin has participated for Team BC and Team Canada at numerous events, including the Canada Winter Games and Women's U18 World Championship.

Micah Hart
Defense
Saanichton, BC
Okanagan Hockey Academy (JWHL)

Hart plays high school hockey for the Okanagan Hockey Academy and has been involved in the BC Hockey High Performance Program for several years. She was recently named to Team BC where she will compete at the 2015 Canada Winter Games in Prince George.

Hart was named Team Captain for Canada's National Women's U18 Team in a three (3) game series versus the United States in August 2014. She also competed at the 2014 IIHF Ice Hockey U18 Women's World Championship, where they brought home the gold medal.

Sarah Potmak
Forward
Aldergrove, BC
Pursuit of Excellence (Midget AAA)

Potmak plays Midget AAA for the Pursuit of Excellence and has participated in numerous BC Hockey High Performance events. Potmak will play for Team BC at the 2015 Canada Winter Games in Prince George.

She served as alternate captain for Canada's National Women's U18 Team in a three (3) game series versus the United States in August 2014. She also helped Team Canada bring home the gold medal at the 2014 IIHF Ice Hockey U18 Women's World Championship.

