

RESPECT IN SPORT PARENT PROGRAM - FAQ

“Respect in Sport Parent Program” FAQ BC Hockey

What is the Respect in Sport Parent Program?

The RIS parent program is an on-line training program focused on helping parents become better Sport Parents. Respect in Sport for Parents provides information on a parents natural influence over their child, and the role they play in their child's enjoyment of a sport or activity. The program also provides parents with tools to evaluate their own behavior.

What is the cost to take the Respect in Sport Parent Program?

The cost is $12.00 per family.

What equipment is required to complete the program?

All that is required to complete the Respect in Sport curriculum is a computer, an Internet connection, and speakers or a headset. Optional equipment includes a printer to print out your certificate of completion.

How long is the course?

It is a total of 1 hour.

Do I have to do it all at once?

No. You can do it at your leisure, come and go as required. The program remembers where you left off and brings you back to that point when you next sign-in. You can even do it from different computers.

Do I have to take the course every year?

No. Once you've completed the course you're done
